ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS

Applications can be mailed, or hand-delivered to the Tax Commission's office, or the Department of Finance's business centers, but they must be received by May 31, 2016. However, if you received a notice from the Department of Finance denying or revoking a Senior or Disabled Homeowners' exemption for your property after May 12, 2016, you can file form TC106A to request Tax Commission review within 20 days after the date of the Finance notice.

SECTION 1 - Your Borough, Block and Lot can be found on the letter you received from the Department of Finance.

SECTION 2 - Your Social Security Number and Date of Birth are required for our tracking of applications, and to facilitate coordinating our records with those of the Department of Finance. Your SSN will not be disclosed, and would be redacted in any FOIL request.

SECTION 4 -You or your spouse/sibling/domestic partner must turn 65 by 12/31/16 to be eligible for the SCHE. Proof of age is required.

SECTIONS 4-5 - You must certify that this property is your primary residence. You can only have one primary residence in any given year. An additional form must be completed, signed, notarized and attached for any additional owner(s)-the TC106A Supplemental.

SECTIONS 4-5 - INCOME INFORMATION-SCHE & DHE If you are applying for the Senior Citizens and/or the Disabled Homeowners exemption, you must provide proof of income for calendar year 2014 for all owners. If you file an income tax return, you must attach a complete copy of your 2014 federal return including all schedules and attachments for all owners. State tax returns are not acceptable, as they lack required information. If any of the owners are not required to file a tax return, you must indicate their name(s), the reason they are not required to file and attach copies of any income documentation such as Social Security Benefits statements or 1099 forms. We will deduct any unreimbursed medical or prescription expenses from income to determine eligibility, but you must attach documentation for any such expenses, and total them yourself. The Tax Commission will not total receipts.

Income Thresholds Senior Citizens and Disabled Homeowners – Total combined income (not adjusted gross income) for all the owners must be less than $37,400 to be eligible.

Income includes: AII social security payments; Salaries and wages (including bonuses); Interest (including nontaxable interest on state or local bonds); Total dividends; Net earnings from farming, rentals, business or profession (including amounts claimed as depreciation for income tax purposes);Income from estates or trusts; Gains from sales and exchanges; Total payments from governmental or private retirement or pension plans; Annuity payments (excluding amounts representing a return of capital); Alimony or support money; Unemployment insurance payments, disability payments, workers' compensation, IRA contributions and earnings on IRAs.

Not included: Supplemental security income; Nazi persecution reparation payments; Federal Foster Grandparent Program payments; welfare payments; reverse mortgage proceeds (except for any interest or dividends realized from the investment of such proceeds); gifts, inheritances or a return of capital

Allowable deductions: Unreimbursed medical and prescription drug expenses.

SECTION 5 - DISABILITY INFORMATION

If any owner receives any of the following forms of disability-related financial assistance: (1) Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI); (2) Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits; (3) Railroad Retirement Disability Benefits (RRDB); (4) Disability pension from the US Postal Service; or has a certificate from the State Commission for the Blind and Visually Handicapped stating that he/she is legally blind, you must submit one of the following required documents: copy of the 2014 award letter from Social Security Administration; copy of the 2014 award letter from the Railroad Board; or U.S. Postal Service or a copy of certificate from the State Commission for the Blind or Visually Handicapped.

SECTION 6 –You may attach any additional information you believe relevant. The specific reason(s) the Department of Finance gave for denying your exemption (e.g., you are not the owner of record, or have another primary residence) must be addressed to get review.

SECTION 7- SIGNATURE AND CERTIFICATION-This application must be signed and notarized.

This application only pertains to revocation or denial of a senior or disabled homeowners exemption communicated in the letter you received from the Department of Finance. This application does not give you a right to contest the assessed value of the property or eligibility for any other exemption. If you are filing such an application and also want to apply for a correction of the assessed value of your property, you must SEPARATELY file an application for review for your property. To appeal the denial of a STAR exemption, use TC106S; to appeal the denial of a clergy or veterans' exemption, use TC106CV.
