Read the booklet Withdrawing Your TSP Account and the notice "Important Tax Information About Payments From Your Thrift Savings Plan Account" before you make your withdrawal election. Your agency must give you these materials when you separate from service. If it has not done so, ask your agency for them.

Accounts of $3,500 or less. When your agency reports that you have separated from service, the TSP will notify you about automatic cashout procedures or leaving your money in the TSP. If the TSP receives a properly completed Withdrawal Request before issuing your cashout notice, your election will be processed, and a cashout notice will not be sent to you.

Accounts of more than $3,500. If you wish to leave your money in the TSP, you do not need to submit any forms. If you wish to withdraw your account, spouse notice or waiver requirements apply (see instructions for Sections IV and V).

SECTION I. 9. Separation from Federal service. If either part of this item is not true, you are not eligible to withdraw your account at this time; do not submit this Withdrawal Request. If you have separated but anticipate being rehired after a break in service of more than 31 full calendar days, see the withdrawal booklet for important information about rehired participants and withdrawal restrictions.

SECTION II. 10. Date of withdrawal. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether you want your withdrawal as soon as it can be processed or at a specific future date. The timing of your withdrawal depends on when we receive this form and when your agency submits your separation information. If you choose a specific date more than four months in the future, the TSP will notify you before that date and will provide current withdrawal and tax information.

Note: You cannot request a withdrawal for a future date that is later than March of the year following the year you become 70 1/2.

11: Life annuity. Your account balance must be $3,500 or more before an annuity can be purchased. The TSP will send you the Annuity Request Package (Form TSP-11-A-B-C) four months before the date you choose in Item 10, or immediately, if you request a withdrawal to be made as soon as possible. Spouse notice or survivor annuity requirements will apply when you complete your annuity election.

12: Single payment. Your entire account balance will be paid out at one time.

13: Series of monthly payments. You can have monthly payments determined in one of three ways. Choose carefully, because you cannot change the way your payments are determined once they begin. For 13a or 13b, your monthly payments must be at least $25.

You may choose one of the following:

- a. Number of monthly payments. Indicate the number of monthly payments you wish to receive. At the beginning of each year, the TSP will recalculate your monthly payment amount based on your account balance at the end of the preceding year and the number of payments remaining.

b. Monthly payment amount. Indicate the dollar amount of your monthly payments. You will receive payments in this amount until your entire account balance has been paid.

c. Payments based on IRS life expectancy table. (Table V, 26 CFR Section 1.72-9). At the beginning of each year, the TSP will recalculate your monthly payment amount based on your account balance and your age.

SECTION III. 14. Transfer to an IRA or other eligible retirement plan. Check Item 14 if you want the TSP to transfer all or part of your single payment or all or part of each monthly payment to an IRA or other eligible retirement plan. You must also submit Form TSP-70-T, Transfer Information. If you request a transfer at a date more than four months in the future, do not submit Form TSP-70-T at this time. The TSP will mail you a notice several months before your chosen withdrawal date to remind you to submit current transfer information. If Form TSP-70-T is not then received, your election will be cancelled.

Note: The TSP cannot transfer annuity payments, monthly payments based on the IRS life expectancy table, or monthly payments expected to last 10 years or more (i.e., 120 or more months). If you are choosing monthly payments in a specific dollar amount (13b above), see the withdrawal booklet to estimate whether your payments will be eligible for transfer.

SECTION IV and V. Spouses' rights apply to accounts that are more than $3,500 at disbursement. If your account balance is $3,500 or less, you do not need to complete these sections.

Spouses' Rights
Classification	Requirement	Exceptions
FERS	Spouse is entitled to a survivor annuity unless he or she waives that right.	Whereabouts unknown or exceptional circumstances

If you are a married CSRS participant and you do not know the whereabouts of your spouse, you must submit Form TSP-16, Exception to Spousal Requirements, with the required documentation. (If you are a married FERS participant, you must complete Items 15 - 17, but you do not need to provide your spouse's address.)

25: Cannot obtain spouse's signature. If you are a married FERS participant and you cannot obtain your spouse's signature because his or her whereabouts are unknown or you believe that exceptional circumstances apply, you must submit Form TSP-16, Exception to Spousal Requirements, with the required documentation. (If your current spouse has previously waived the right to a survivor annuity, this section does not have to be completed.)

SECTION VI. 26 - 27. Signature and certification. You must sign and date this section; otherwise, this form will not be accepted.
