

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF THOROUGHLY.

This proof is furnished to you to check for typographical, spelling & grammatical errors or mistakes in layout. If the publication needs to be seen by more than one person in a department, it is the responsibility of the person requesting the publication to route the proof to the appropriate people. If an error is missed during the proofing process that should have been caught within the department requesting the publication and a publication must be reprinted, the department that requested the publication will be responsible for the cost of reprinting and any other related costs.
